Educational Psychologist

We are looking for a qualified Educational Psychologist who is looking for a different challenge. This role requires someone who is committed to raising the outcomes for learners through early interventions and training who would like the opportunity to become an integral part of a school community.

The successful applicant will use a consultation approach to develop interventions and work with parent carers and outside agencies across the age range of 4 – 19 to meet the needs of our children and young people with a range of severe and complex Learning Disabilities.

The role will also involve training and support to the wider staff team as part of our commitment to CPD in addition to attending meetings including annual reviews.

In the first instance this role will be solely based within Selworthy Special School but over the course of the first year we are looking for the successful candidate to develop the role across our Multi-Academy Trust. The Oak Partnership consists of three Primary Schools and Selworthy School and was formed in January 2019.

Qualities that we are looking for:

- An outstanding practitioner
- A passion for developing professional relationships with all stakeholders
- Confident with the application of psychology theory and research
- Ability to articulate messages clearly and motivate peers
- A commitment to develop professionally

- Applicants must be professionally qualified and registered with the HCPC

We will offer you:

- 118 fantastic learners
- A curriculum with strong interventions for identified learners
- Colleagues who are committed to all learners and value advice and support
- A warm, supportive and positive learning and working environment
- The opportunity to play an active part in the development of the school
- A school that continuously seeks opportunities to further improve

The school will fully support and fund your professional supervision and registration.

Selworthy is committed to safeguarding & promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful applicant will be subject to an enhanced DBS check.
